Mobilengine is a Hungary based start-up with customers in 10+ countries. We became the leading mobile enterprise solution provider in recent years by providing mobile workflow solutions for field workforce to enhance process efficiency.

Mobile Application Engineer

This job is for you if you like to

- Customize mobile workflows and applications on the Mobilengine platform, on Android and iOS
- Build electronic forms, webforms, dashboards using internal tools
- Customize reports using Crystal Reports
- Parametrize system integrations
- Develop complementary applications (via app2app APIs)
- Provide feasibility and effort estimation on customer use cases
- Work closely with international business teams to prepare and deliver projects
- Support existing and potential customers

You have:

- Relevant academic background (General IT or Software Engineering university degree)
- Basic SQL relational database understanding and query skills
- Knowledge of English (B1 minimum)
- Both creative and strong analytic skills
- Problem solving skills
- Previous mobile development experience is not required

You might also have:

- C#, Java experience
- Development experience on Android or iOS
- System integration experience
- Customer facing in a multinational customer environment
- B2+ English

We offer:

- Super dynamic and talented team
- International customers and working experience
- Competitive salary
- Regular team buildings, table foosball
- Unparalleled experience of bringing a leading product to new markets and building a global organization

Work location

- Miskolc base

Please submit your English CV to office@mobilengine.com with subject "APPENG-ENG_2017".